Mrs. Leech for Millinery.

The fighting in Kirksville was all finished up before election day.

Ben Ely and Dan Crawford will have an extremely lonesome time for the next two years.

Marshall Scott kept excellent order during the Republican parade and speaking Saturday.

The election in Kirksville passed off quietly. All were good natured, but terribly in earnest.

The boys who came home to vote for Bryan threw away their car fare, but it increased the business of the railroads.

Regular service at M. E. church Sunday morning and evening by the pastor M. C. Hardin. Special music for the day.

The Dorcas society has put an excellent piano into the Christian church, a platform for the church and a new carpet for the pulpit.

The Republicans of West Salt River will hold a ratification meeting at Bullion Saturday night. A torch light procession and speaking. All are invited.

Episcopal church service on Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. The Rev. C. H. Canfield will preach. Mr. Will Northrup reader of the service.

Here are some real, live bargains: Mrs. Leech is selling prettily trimmed $3 hats for $2, and hats that are a good value at $2.50 for $1.50, to close them out. A rare opportunity.

Boys entered the basement of the new Baptist church Saturday night and badly damaged a new furnace. The furnace cost $300, and it will take several dollars to repair the damage.

Burglars tried to enter the house of C. L. Bounds Wednesday night but awakened the family, and ran away when discovered. The house of Blair Ross was also entered by burglars the same night and when discovered escaped by jumping through the window.

Now is the time to take advantage of the unprecedented low prices that are given on all lines of our queensware, glassware, etc. Come and make your own selection and get the goods at your own price. We are selling them out rapidly and the sooner you come the better chance you have. Remember this is at Stanton & Cole's, north side of the square.

The boys who placed obstructions across the side walks Saturday night caused serious injury to a number of pedestrians who happened to be out after dark. Traps to injure or the destruction of property should be severely punished, and the city should see to it hereafter that an extra police force is put on duty for the protection of property.

Marshall Scott went to Moberly Monday and brought back three tramps who had been arrested at that place on the charge of vagrancy. They were supposed to be the fellows who robbed J. C. Kiblers store here, the night of Oct. 5. They are the tramps that were here at that time, but as there was no positive evidence against them they were turned loose.

Last week Geo. W. Novinger sold 21 2-year-old steers that averaged 1300 pounds. The price paid for them was 40 cents per pound making the average price of each steer $52.36, a total of $1099.56 for the 21 head. With such cattle in the hands of a careful man like Mr. Novinger, there is no trouble to make money, even in hard times like the present. Better stock and a careful attention to business are factors that have all to do with the farmer's prosperity.

PERSONALS.

Geo. W. Gluck, of Linderville, was in the city Tuesday.

George Notestine and daughter, Florence, will arrive from Winnebago, Neb., to night.

Dr. Stablin left for St. Louis Tuesday night to complete a course of medical lectures.

Miss Lura Buchanan, who is teaching at Julesburg, spent Saturday and Sunday in Kirksville.

Grandma Hildreth, who has been in Winside, Neb., for the past year, will return to Kirksville to-night.

Drs. Ed. Bounds, Hubert Hannah and Finley Harlan came home from St. Louis Saturday to vote, and returned Thursday.

Ex-Mayor Tinsman, Road Manager for the Chicago Portrait Co., for Colorado, Utah, California, New Mexico and Arizona arrived Saturday to vote for McKinley and visit his numerous friends. Mr. Tinsman represents the largest concern of its kind in the world. He will leave for Denver, Colo., Thursday night.

Mrs. F. E. Wilkerson has returned from Colorado Springs where she has been visiting a sister. She also took a trip over the Rocky Mountains and to the Cripple Creek gold mines which promises to be one of the greatest mining camps in the world. While there she located two mines and bought an interest in one other.

Simpson Ely will preach next Sunday morning on "Life's Purpose, Plan and Prize." In the evening his subject will be "The Entire Consecration of Jesus."

Married.

FINLEY-JOHNSON—November 4, 1896, William E. Finley and Miss Maud Johnson, both of this city, Rev. W. L. Fletcher officiating.

The Richard Wagner Conservatory has selected Miss Pearl Hulet, of Columbia, as teacher of voice culture. She has been very fortunate in having had such eminent instructors as Miss Jessie Thistle, Miss Urilla McDearmon, a St. Louis prima donna, and Miss Elise Wenzel of Sterns Conservatory, Berlin. All wishing to study voice culture are requested to see Miss Hulet at the Conservatory.

Musical and Elocutionary Entertainment.

A musical and elocutionary entertainment under the direction of Miss Pearl Hulet will be given at the Christian church, Friday evening November 13. This entertainment will be a great musical and literary treat.

Died.

WARREN—In this city Tuesday, November 3, 1896, Mrs. Susan Warren, aged 70 years and 27 days. Mrs. Warren was the mother of Mrs. Lon Ammerman. The remains were taken to Salisbury, Thursday for burial.

The U. B. church, two miles west of Gibbs, will be dedicated to the service of God the 22d day of Nov. 1896. Bishop Floyd will officiate. All are cordially invited to attend.

J. L. HALL, P. C.

Wood—Mussion.

A very pleasant event occurred at Bethel church on the evening of Oct. 28th. The occasion was the marriage of Rev. Chas. A. Wood and Miss Sadia A. Mussion. The church was filled to its utmost capacity with friends and acquaintances. Promptly at 7 o'clock the bridal party took their places at the chancel. After a beautiful and impressive ritual service, congratulations followed. The bride is a most estimable young lady, a leader in social and religious circles. The groom is a young man of excellent character and is deservedly popular with his people. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. E. Newland, of Walnut Grove, Ill., who is a cousin of the bride.

The young couple left Friday for their future home in Revere, Mo. Rev. Wood is pastor of the M. E. church at that place.

FARMER & SON.

Bryan carried Alabama by 40,000, Arkansas by 35,000, Utah 10,000, Colorado by 100,000, Nevada by 7,000.

Republican Rally.

The last grand rally of Adair county Republicans was held in this city last Saturday. The rain of Thursday and Thursday night made the prospect look gloomy for a big turnout, or a successful parade.

The enthusiasm of the Republicans, however, overcame all obstacles, and when Saturday morning dawned bright and fair, it soon became evident that everything connected with the final Republican demonstration would be a great success, and with the help given it by the opposition, a howling success. The procession began to form on Washington street, and as the delegations from the country came in they were assigned to places in the parade and given positions on cross streets.

The procession moved at 11:30 headed by the Kirksville cornet band. Then came voters 200 strong on foot, followed by 500 ladies and gentlemen on horseback. The ladies were dressed in black, and wore yellow caps. These were followed by a large double float, beautifully decorated, on which was the Goddess of Liberty and 46 little girls dressed in white wearing yellow caps. The large float representing America, was beautifully designed, and handsomely decorated. The Hawaiian float, attracted considerable attention and comment. On the float was a native Hawaiian bearing aloft the Hawaiian and American flags. On a streamer was the motto "Hawaii favors McKinley and McKinley favors Hawaii."

One of the most attractive features of the parade was the float designed and gotten up by Miss Minnie Potter. The float was yellow with green and white trimmings. It represented Uncle Sam ruling the United States and controlling the currency, gold, silver and greenbacks, which was represented by three young ladies dressed in yellow, white and green. On Uncle Sam's back was the motto "Peace and Prosperity." At his feet two little boys representing capital and labor, and between them a little girl representing "Harmony." The country delegations made a splendid showing. Walnut, Liberty, East Saltriver and West Saltriver being specially prominent in the parade. One of the floats in the Liberty township delegation caused much amusement. It represented the Bryan crowd in a canoe on its trip up Saltriver. The procession was by far the best ever seen in Kirksville. In the afternoon Eugene Seger, of Chicago, addressed the immense crowd assembled in the park.

At night there was a torch light procession with over 500 men in line. A company in uniform sent up colored rockets during the march, and the shot gun brigade stationed in the park added much to the effectiveness of the parade. After the torch light procession, Hon. S. M. Pickler, F. M. Harrington and Hon. A. N. Seaber spoke in the Opera House which was crowded to overflowing.

Golden Wedding of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Mitchell.

It is a rare event in wedded life when the fiftieth anniversary is announced.

Fifty years ago the third day of November Rev. J. B. Mitchell and Miss Martha Dysart were united in marriage.

The united life has been of universal interest, not only on account of the distinguished services of Dr. Mitchell as circuit rider, College President and pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city, assisted as he always has been by his faithful and loving wife, but also on account of the large family which they have raised.

To them have been born ten children all of whom are still living except one.

The fiftieth anniversary was celebrated by the annual family reunion, and on the evening of the third the following members of the family and relatives gathered at the old home to celebrate the event.

Children and grandchildren: Dr. J. T. Mitchell, Kansas City; Mrs. S. A. McDavid, Coffeen, Ill.; Rev. J. W. Mitchell, wife and son, Marshall, Mo.; Rev. B. P. Fullerton, wife, son and daughter, St. Louis; Mr. Henry Johnson, wife, son and two daughters, Pardin, Mo.; Mr. L. S. Mitchell, wife, son, and two daughters, St. Louis; Mr. O. M. Mitchell, wife and son, Kansas City; Mrs. Mary Bannister and son, Memphis, Mo.

Nephews and nieces: Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Guthrie and son, Macon; Mrs. Granville Thompson, Narrows, Mo.; Mrs. Alan McLean, St. Louis; Mrs. Joseph Murphy, New Haven, Mo.; Mrs. Maud Brock, Macon; Mr. L. W. Mitchell and wife, Kirksville.

Miss Ermine Owen of the State Normal of our city was also present and contributed much to the pleasure of the evening by a very appropriate reading of "The Palace of the King."

In commemoration of the interesting event Dr. J. T. Mitchell contributed a beautiful original poem and hymn which was sung to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne." After which Mr. R. G. Mitchell in a few well chosen words presented a purse of fifty dollars in gold in the name of the children.

The evening's association closed with very touching remarks by both Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell.
